ようこそいらっしゃいました。

Welcome

The New Resident Guide has been developed by South West Community Connect, a coalition working together for the wellbeing of communities in south-west Wollongong in the suburbs of Dapto, Koonawarra, Horsley and Unanderra.

The guide provides useful information about local services and activities, encouraging residents to join in community activities, make new friends, learn and share skills. It is a way to support the community and improve connections in neighbourhoods.

About South West Community Connect

We provide an opportunity for community services from Government and non-Government organisations and community members to get together and tackle local issues. Membership is open to all who support the aims of the coalition.

We work to:

- Build partnerships and support our common areas of work
- Share our expertise, knowledge and information
- Discuss, debate, lobby on identified issues and seek opportunities for funding
- Celebrate achievements and reflect on opportunities for change.

We are a voluntary coalition which meets quarterly and have a number of active working groups who progress our goals. The meetings are held on the third Thursday of March, June, September and December from 1.00pm – 3.00pm at a local community venue.

For further information please contact your local community centre or contact:

Welcome to Country

My name is Brett Amatto and as a proud Koori man, I would like to welcome you to the Yuin Nation, of the Dharawal language people who are the traditional custodians of this land.

I pay respects to the elders both past and present.

I extend that respect to other Aboriginal people and non Aboriginal people present.

It is important to remember the loss of this land, of culture, history and treasures of my people as we walk forward together towards a better future, acknowledging that the land on which we work, live and play has been and always will be Aboriginal land.

History

Wollongong's south is surrounded by natural resources.

It runs between the escarpment and Lake Illawarra, encompassing the suburbs of Unanderra, Kembla Grange, Dapto, Koonawarra, Horsley and surrounds.

As with many Wollongong suburbs, the names are derived from their Aboriginal meaning. Dapto means 'water plenty', or tap-toe which described the way a lame Aboriginal Elder walked. Unanderra means 'the meeting of two creeks' and Koonawarra, the 'high point of the land'.

These areas were occupied by the Wadi Wadi and Bong Bong tribes. Their totem was a whale and they relied on fishing from the local creeks, Lake Illawarra and local beaches.

The earliest European Settlements date back to the 1800s, when the first land grants were made for farmland and residential estates. After unsuccessful attempts to grow wheat; dairy farming became the predominate industry in the Dapto area and the coal industry began developing in Unanderra.

Residential expansion of the areas began in the early 1990s when large estates, often comprising of whole suburbs, were subdivided and developed.

West Dapto continues to expand and it is estimated there will be an increase of around 33,000 people by 2031. Although the area is one of the fastest growing areas in NSW, it still has a rural feel, as much of the area is still surrounded by farmland and open spaces, with views of the escarpment and Lake Illawarra.

Acknowledgements

The New Resident Guide Project Group would like to acknowledge everyone who has contributed its development:

Special thanks to community members who have shared their local knowledge, valuable ideas and time with us.

Thanks to Ann Green, previous Community Development Worker at Wollongong City Council who developed the first residents' guide, "What's on in Dapto".

Thanks to the TAFE students who have contributed to the various tasks required to get the resource to an early draft.

Our gratitude goes to the Community Belonging Working Group of South West Community Connect who generously contributed to the creation of the New Resident Guide and to making it a reality: Verica Sajdovska, Karen Tavener-Smith, Jemima Hawkins, Sandra Luschwitz, Linda Robison, Caitlin Marshall and Jenny Norman.

Thanks to all the local services, organisations and businesses that readily provided information for the guide.

Thanks to Janet Jackson, local Horsley resident and keen photographer who has provided us with many of the wonderful pictures in the guide.

Thanks to the Health Promotion Service of the Illawarra Shoalhaven Local Health District and Wollongong City Council for provision of the resources to produce and print this guide.

Copies of the New Residents Guide are available from:

- Your local neighbourhood centre
- Wollongong City Council website
- Real estate agents
- Primary and high schools.
